New Resource for Latino Parents and Youngsters Explains How to Pay for College

HARTFORD, May 10 — With graduations nearing, this is a busy time for students and parents. Many high school seniors are graduating while younger students are just starting to consider college choices.

So that all students and parents are fully informed about potential college financial aid options, the Connecticut Department of Higher Education has created the enclosed Spanish translation of its annual Student Financial Assistance guide. This guide is designed specifically for Latino families.

Additional copies may be obtained by contacting the Department's Education & Employment Information Center at 800/842-0229 or eeic@ctdhe.org. This text also may be downloaded from the Department's website, www.ctdhe.org.

This translation was made possible by the Standing Advisory Committee to the Board of Governors for Higher Education, the state's coordinating agency for Connecticut colleges and universities.
